PRB No. 22111-11

b6 -2 per FBI

Pre-Publication Coordinator
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Dear

Attached, which is a referral from the Central Intelligence Agency's Publications Review Board, is a manuscript by [redacted] entitled [redacted]. To protect any potential Federal Bureau of Investigation's equities, the PRB requires that the FBI identify the specific text that contains classified information and provide sufficient detail as to why the information is classified so that we can properly inform the author of the rationale for deletion.

As the author's prepublication review obligation is to CIA, the Publications Review Board is the sole coordinator on this manuscript and reserves the right to handle all formal taskings. Therefore, if the FBI finds equities of another federal government agency not specifically tasked as stated in this letter, please do not directly refer this manuscript, rather, notify CIA PRB immediately and we will take appropriate action.

U.S. federal court decisions obligate the pre-publication review process to be conducted in a timely manner (e.g., in U.S. v. Marchetti the court required the CIA to respond to the author within 30 days of receiving the submission). Therefore, to meet this deadline, we need your response by close of business on 14 September 2011. If you cannot meet this deadline, please let us know when a response will be forthcoming and the reason for the delay. We will attempt to negotiate an extension with the author. That said, if an extension is not agreed to by the author, the Agency may be forced to meet the original deadline.

If you have any questions, please contact me at [redacted]
